

We focus on mentoring in-house for professional development and encourage our employees to volunteer outside the office, as a way of giving back to the community and to society at large. Akran provides advice and guidance to non-profit organizations, start-ups and directly to aspiring entrepreneurs by providing a real-world business perspective to help them develop the skills needed for success.